

Residence Life Programming with an IMPACT - CAMPUS SUMMARY - OCTOBER 2007

Date(s)	Event Title & Description (Describe briefly what was held or done)	I	M	PA	C	T	Outcomes: (Describe what either you or students learned from this event)
10/1/2007	80's Theme Party – Residents came to the first floor lounge and danced to 80's music, talked, and ate food.					X	Residents were able to learn about music and dress of the time as well as get to know more residents.
10/1/2007	Breast Cancer Bake Sale in Montour Lobby from 7:30-8:30pm.				X		The Breast Cancer bake sale was a chance for residents to give something to their community. There were people that didn't even buy baked goods and just donated from $5-$10 for the cause. There was also a number of residents that bought Breast Cancer bracelets to show their support for our community.
10/1/2007	Ice Cream Social for Say Yes to Success: The winners of the "Say Yes To Success" Program were awarded an ice-cream social.	X				X	The residents that won the "Say Yes To Success" game show learned about teamwork and had a wonderful timing answering the questions.
10/2/2007	Body Image – Sponsored by WRC	X		X		X	This Wit and Wisdom program was a chance for the residents to get a realistic look at what really goes on in our society. They were made aware of all the underlying pressures in the media and news that affect people and the way they think. They were also given a chance to give their own opinion on what they think of the whole "sex sells" motto. Residents now realize that they can be themselves and know that there is nothing wrong with that.
10/2/2007	Doortags: Created and distributed doortags to all the residents. I made two different kinds, both with a Halloween theme.	X			X	X	This event enabled me to become familiar with the resource room and allowed me to use my creativity to better our hallway.
10/3/2007	Etiquette Dinner – Held in the lower room of the Commons, students were given the chance to dine with etiquette.	X				X	We learned about proper etiquette for any special occasion. We talked about appropriate attire, eating behaviors, and dinner conversations.
10/3/2007	Karaoke Night: all residents from the building performed songs.				X	X	The students encouraged each other even if they couldn't sing well.
10/4/2007	Dance Exhibition: Students preformed and taught different forms of dances centered primarily around Spanish music	X	X			X	Residents learned some things about the Spanish culture.
10/4/2007	GRE Review Session- I attended the 4 th and final GRE preparation session.	X					We discussed ways to improve your math & verbal scores on the GRE.
10/4/2007	Guitar Lessons – taught a few of the basics of guitar playing to other members of the hall.	X				X	The residents learned chords and how to play simple songs. They were happy to have a new talent and gained a better appreciation for time and effort put into learning how to play an instrument.
10/4/2007	Ice Cream Parties, Pizza Parties					X	Students came and hung out or took well deserved study breaks to socialize with other residents

10/4/2007	Keep It Green – residents gathered in the first floor lounge and watched Dr. Seuss’s The Lorax and discussed the hazards of globalization and pollution	X		X		X	Residents realized that even Dr. Seuss movies can be informative and that globalization is a serious issue that we are facing today.
10/4/2007	The Newly Roommate Game: A gameshow that tested how well roommates know each other with a wide variety of questions.	X				X	At this event, residents and I learned new things about each other and worked together by trying to correctly answer the questions in order to win the game.
10/4/2007	Water Pong: there were facts about beer on soda cans and each team had to throw a pong in the cups filled with water	X		X		X	The residents were given information about drinking and the risks and harms of alcohol to the body.
10/4/2007	Who Comes First?- Program put on by the Women's Resource center on being an independent woman. This was an open discussion about male and female roles in a relationship.	X	X	X		X	Residents got to know one another better and learned about personal and joint values within relationships. .
10/5/2007	Celebrity Artist Series: The East Village Opera Company performed a rock/opera concert in Haas. Songs were in several different languages, and were performed in non-traditional ways.		X			X	This was a good opportunity to take advantage of the Celebrity Artist Series on campus and the residents enjoyed the show too.
10/5/2007	Food stocking at Scranton Commons: I helped deliver food that was not used at the Commons to the Food Cupboard downtown.					X	I learned how to collaborated w/ other organizations to do good things for less fortunate people.
10/5/2007	Latino Bingo- Sponsored by Program board, we played BINGO, ate food and certain games were even called out in Spanish.	X	X			X	Playing Bingo with the residents and staff was an opportunity to take a break from classes and have a good time. The residents were also given the chance to learn a few Spanish words.
10/6/2007	Midnight Pizza: Free pizza was given out along with soda, and music was played as well.					X	I got to eat and hang out with other residents talking and enjoying each others company.
10/6/2007	Nite Class Dance Club-This was a dance held in the union as a social event.		X			X	It encourages good friendships, a healthy environment, and helps to build a tight-knit community. Residents were also exposed to different styles and backgrounds in dancing.
10/6/2007	Quoits: Residents and I played a game sort of like horseshoes	X				X	Residents were taught rules and techniques for playing the game of quoits
10/6/2007	The Latino Extravaganza: This was a dinner with authentic Latino dance, food, and poetry that was put together by the Multicultural Center	X	X	X		X	Residents were able to bond with each other and some of the staff while experiencing an array of foods, presentations of dance and song, and speakers that taught them about the variety and depth of Latino Culture
10/8/2007	Sexual Abuse – sponsored by Delta Kappa Pi-Honor Society for Education Majors			X			Residents learned how to deal with people that are being abused or were abused. They were taught how to approach, handle, and interact with people who have been in those kinds of situations.
10/8/2007	Tie dye program- This was a building wide program where residents could bring anything they wanted to tie-dye and we could provide everything else for them					X	This was a good way for all the residents to mingle with each other through a creative activity. It was also a good way for the residents to get to know their CAs.
10/9/2007	Breast Cancer Jeopardy- This was a trivia game with facts about breast cancer.	X	X	X		X	Residents learned facts and statistics about breast cancer and became more aware of this problem.

10/9/2007	Career Day- Members of the Black Cultural Society put together display boards about their particular major and career of interest	X		X		X	I learned about the different careers and majors I could explore at Bloomsburg University and out in the world after college.
10/10/2007	“World Jeopardy” was a program I did with the “M” group for IMPACT. First each person said a small speech about their designated country that the residents had to listen to. We made up a jeopardy board of trivia regarding the five different countries and made it a competition between floors. The residents got very competitive. Food and beverage were provided there as well	X	X				The program had a very good turnout. The residents learned some interesting facts about each country and got very competitive. This program also taught the CA’s as judges how to work as a team and back each other up.
10/10/2007	National Coming Out Day Celebration: A celebration of the progress the gay community has made through history	X	X	X	X	X	It was a good example of how one difference in preference makes little difference in life as a whole.
10/10/2007	Protests on Campus	X	X	X			Residents had the opportunity to debate legal, moral, and religious views surround sensitive issues such as abortion, sexuality, the death penalty, etc.
10/10/2007	Radio Show: One of my freshman residents has his own radio show on Tuesdays. I was invited to come by his show and to be a guest.	X				X	Because I have had my own radio show for a year, I taught him the tricks needed to use the more advanced equipment, and encouraged other students to listen.
10/11/2007	Free Cake LGBT program- This was just an opening meet, greet, and become aware of the organization program. Members were present to speak with and sign ups for more information were available.		X	X		X	This program was good because it was a nice relaxed environment. Everyone was talking and enjoying themselves. My residents seemed to enjoy the time we spent there.
10/13/2007	Fall Festival:I attended the yearly festival held in Catawissa which included hayrides, a pumpkin patch, and a corn maze.					X	We built a stronger sense of community and had a good time outside of the dorms and off of campus.
10/13/2007	Ghosting- An event held on my floor in which one person puts a ghost, instructions, and a bag of candy on three other peoples’ rooms. Each of those three people “ghost” three other people, all the while keeping the ghost tacked up on their board.				X	X	The residents enjoyed “ghosting” other people and became excited about the creative game.
10/15/2007	“Candy Chat”. I went to each of my residents’ rooms with a pumpkin bowl of candy, and allowed them to eat some candy while I asked how they were doing.					X	The CA is able to learn a lot about the residents by doing “Candy Chats”. The residents seem eager to talk when I come around with candy, and seem to enjoy talking about school and life in general
10/15/2007	Pie Your CA in the Face for UNICEF - Residents could pie a CA, SCA or GHD in the face. All proceeds benefited UNICEF				X	X	Residents learned that not all fundraisers are boring. They got to pie staff members for a good cause. This was a very effective way of getting people to donate to UNIEF, and residents can use this program in the future to promote their fundraisers.
10/16/2007	Breast Cancer Awareness T’Shirts- We made T-Shirts and also viewed a PowerPoint with breast cancer facts. They were provided with ribbons, and received information from a PowerPoint that gave some facts and statistics about breast cance	X		X			The residents were able to create shirts to show their support for breast cancer. r. It educated some the residents on how important it is to support the cure for breast cancer, and all form of cancer. They also got to enjoy some pink M&M cookies and Pink Lemonade.
10/17/2007	Fried Chicken & Games Night: The impact movement held a program serving chicken to members and fellowshipping.		X			X	Attendees enjoyed fried chicken as we proceeded to engage in fun activities.

10/17/2007	Get Painted: A program in which residents designed and painted shirts for each other.				X	X	Residents who do not usually associate with one another helped design shirts.
10/17/2007	Resume Workshop: Attended workshop on how to write or improve a resume	X					We learned about techniques to enhance our marketability by having outstanding resumes
10/17/2007	Weenies on Wheels: a fundraiser involving the selling hot dogs and sodas to residents to be either picked up or delivered				X		The staff and residents were involved in helping the community.
10/18/2007	Breast Cancer Awareness Discussion: An event sponsored by the Women's Resource Center providing first-hand information about this serious health risk.	X		X			Larned about a women's personal battle against breast cancer. We learned the importance of self-exams and spreading the word to inform other women.
10/18/2007	Laugh House: Black Cultural Society at Bloomsburg University put together an amateur comedy show for the students		X			X	The comedians were really funny and there was a special performance by a dance group on campus
10/19/2007	Arts of the Alumni - Went to the Haas Center to look at art pieces created by the alumni.					X	Residents learned that there are very creative people that were once part of Bloomsburg University. Became more aware of different styles of art and the importance of appreciating other's talents.
10/19/2007	Texas-Hold'em Tournament- A tournament was held between residents and CA's. The prizes included gift cards to Wal-Mart and free pizzas to Dominoes.					X	Everyone had a great time and loved playing poker. This tournament also gave the residents an alternative activity, instead of going to homecoming parties.
10/20/2007	Homecoming Weekend (Parade, Banner, Window Painting, Non-Float, Float Building, Football Game, Dance Party)					X	Residents helped the staff get ready for homecoming and had an inside look at how our staff bonds and communicates. They also got to be a part of the staff for a day and enjoyed participating in the parade. Residents and CA's learned teamwork by perfecting a dance and enjoying the company of others in parade.
10/20/2007	The Climate Project - The power point presentation from Gore's award winning film the Inconvenient Truth	X		X			Explained to Students current issues of climate and their severity on both a worldwide and state level. Residents also became better aware of what they could do on a personal level to help.
10/22/2007	BUSTED - Episode # 19 College Creepers - Student actors perform stories/events that happen to everyday college students. B.U.S.T.E.D. puts a comedic spin on serious topics such as dating, STDs, self-injurious behavior, sexual assault, alcohol abuse, relationship issues, and pregnancy		X	X	X	X	Audience members have a great time following the story lines of the characters of the show. The stories are easily relatable to student issues. We always have a great time watching what will happen next! Students donated to UNICEF.
10/22/2007	Caramel Apple Night: Residents of Luzerne had the opportunity to make caramel apples.					X	Students mingled with peers while other residents while making caramel apples and drinking apple cider.
10/22/2007	Interview Skills: This was a program held to help students with interviews.	X					Facilitators of the program gave advice relating to interviews.
10/23/2007	Game Night- A night that gave scholars the opportunity to take a break from studying and get together and enjoy some fun games.					X	This gave students something fun and an opportunity to socialize with other scholars.
10/23/2007	Resume Writing: An advisor gave a presentation on how to write a resume and what to put into your resume.	X					The event helped me learn all the information I need to know about writing a resume correctly.

10/24/2007	“Pumpkin Painting Party”- The residents painted pumpkins as a small Halloween celebration to bring home to the hall and have lots of fun together.					X	The residents were able to show their creativity as well as relax and get to know the the residents on the floor as well as the new residents. It was a good stress relieving program for the middle of the week.
10/24/2007	Cork Board Decorating- Resident’s of the fourth floor decorated their corkboards for the fall season.				X	X	The resident’s got a chance to express their creativity and make fun door decorations.
10/24/2007	Everything is Interdisciplinary – this program was to promote the idea that we should promote conservation of the environment across various disciplines.	X		X			This program taught up and coming teachers that, that it is very important to incorporate various themes from different disciplines into the curriculum. Also learned how important it is to take an individual stand on helping to save the environment.
10/24/2007	How Well Do You Know Your CA – This is a game show that tested residents’ knowledge on how well they know the CA’s of the building.	X				X	Residents got to know the Schuylkill staff and learned some interesting facts about us. This is a great way to show them that we are students just like they are and might even have similar backgrounds to them.
10/24/2007	Majors Fair	X		X		X	We learned about many of the majors available at Bloomsburg University and a little more about each. Helped residents who are currently undeclared get a better idea of what kind of classes they would like to take.
10/24/2007	Safer Sex - Sponsored by WRC. A program regarding control in one’s sexual activities.	X		X		X	Residents learned the dangers of unprotected sex and ways to protect themselves. Also learned about ways to prevent disease and pregnancy when engaging in sexual activities.
10/24/2007	Self Defense Lessons: Dr. Andrea Fradkin, a professor, came to Luzerne and taught self defense techniques to some residents.	X		X		X	We learned how to defend ourselves in daily situations.
10/24/2007	The Voice: I invited a resident to come by the office one night to see the behind the scenes work involved in creating the student newspaper.	X				X	Resident was able to learn basic skills involving the use of the program QUARK and had his first contact with a MAC computer. He was involved with the creative process in designing pages. He has since joined the staff and is working as the assistant sports editor.
10/24/2007	Trick or Treat STD Style – Asked residents questions when they came to my room and gave out candy for a correct response. Afterwards the residents played a game of Jeopardy to learn more about sexually transmitted diseases.	X				X	The residents learned more about STDs and signs and symptoms of STDs. They were also able to enjoy going around to CA rooms to receive candy and information
10/25/2007	Business Tips- Attended a presentation given by Michael Coffta, Associate Professor, Business Reference Librarian, on interviewing and resume presentation.	X					Learned a great deal about how to properly interview and received advice on how to make a resume more appealing in the business world.
10/25/2007	Halloween Costume Party. Almost everyone who attended the party wore costumes and participated in a scavenger hunt, looking for information about the Columbia CAs. There was also a costume contest at the end of the party.	X				X	The residents learned a lot of information about specific CA's in the building through the scavenger hunt as well as socializing with other residents and CA's.

10/25/2007	Halloween Program - This program was held to get students into the Halloween spirit through a movie, treats, and puzzles including Halloween trivia.					X	Students came together as a social gathering to celebrate the upcoming holiday and also were able to complete a jigsaw including typical Halloween trivia.
10/26/2007	Bingo					X	Playing Bingo with the residents was an opportunity to take a break from classes and have a good time. It also gave us a chance to try and win some money!
10/26/2007	Midnight pizza- An event sponsored by Program Board in which free pizza was given out.					X	Great event that helps residents get out of their rooms and to converse with others on a Friday night.
10/26/2007	Rockin' the Ribbon in KUB at 8pm.				X	X	There was a fundraiser Concert that required donation at the front door to support research for breast cancer. The residents helped their community while enjoying a good time. They learned that it doesn't take much to lend a helping hand to their community.
10/27/2007	High School soccer playoffs-Went to upper campus with one of my residents to watch his girlfriend compete in her game.					X	This resident has been difficult to motivate to get involved in activities. He is leaving school next semester and perhaps because of this has distanced himself from the rest of the wing. This event allowed him to become involved again and helped rebuild community in a way that he approved of.
10/27/2007	Illusionist Robert Channing: the Illusionist amazed everyone with his skill in mind reading					X	It was a fun event that my residents and I had fun at.
10/27/2007	Trip to the SPCA in Danville				X	X	This was an opportunity for the residents to get to know the staff that is running the building that they live in. They went out on a Saturday morning to help the community and the animals in need of a friend. They learned how fun it can be to help out. There was a great turn out of approximately 15-20 people.
10/27/2007	Unity Jam: A concert was held to raise money for breast cancer (rocking the ribbon)		X	X	X		I learned that a lot of people help breast cancer whether it be supporting the concert or the walk
10/27/2007	You Can't Take it With You: Theatrical production held at the Alvina Krause theatre which included some Bloomsburg University students.	X			X	X	Have fun while supporting the Bloomsburg Theatre Ensemble.
10/28/2007	Breast Cancer Walk-This was an annual program that raises money that is donated toward breast cancer research.				X		The students of Bloomsburg University raised money for breast cancer research, and walked/run 3 1/2 miles as a tribute to breast cancer survivors.
10/29/2007	DayHaloDiwali- This program featured information on Day of the Dead, Halloween, and Diwali. The staff provided information about the history and culture of each celebration. Then as a craft for Dead of the Dead they we able to make masks which is a tradition of the Mexicans. For Diwali, which means festival of lights, they were able to paint wickless candles. For Halloween they were given a tiny bag of candy as a sign of trick-or-treating.	X	X		X	X	The residents really enjoyed this program. They thought the information given was very interesting and loved the crafts as well. Many of them stayed for an extended period of time to finish their wickless candles and masks.

10/29/2007	Pumpkin Painting				X	X	Helped to bring residents together to get to know each other and to build a stronger sense of community with a fun Halloween activity.
10/29/2007	STD Mafia: Residents of Luzerne Hall played the game mafia in the Fireside Lounge	X	X	X	X	X	Residents learned about STD's, Condom usage, and fellowshipped and had fun while doing so.
10/29/2007	The Producers: Residents and I went to the performance at Haas					X	A hilarious show that goes over the most sensitive subjects in today's society, but people still laugh at them because it is truly funny. Great way to get out on campus, and do something different.
10/29/2007	We all SCREAM for Ice Cream – We had a Halloween social with free ice cream, interesting Halloween facts, and lots of fun.	X				X	We not only learned how to enjoy each other's company while eating ice cream, but we also learned interesting facts about Halloween.
10/30/2007	Bingo at Danville Hospital				X	X	Residents were able to get out and feel how good it is to give back to the community. They learned that volunteering and helping out can be fun.
10/30/2007	Charlie Brown Movie and Caramel Apples Program- The residents watched The Great Pumpkin, and ate caramel apples and other snacks.					X	This program gave the opportunity to check in with the residents and hear how things were going with school, friends, etc.
10/30/2007	Disability Ice Cream Social - Residents were given either a blindfold or earplugs to use while enjoying their ice cream. They were then asked to discuss their thoughts and feelings about the situation.			X		X	This program gave residents the opportunity to see what it is like to live 20 minutes in the life of a person that has disabilities. The residents have shown more respect for people that they see with these disabilities since the program because now they know what it's like to live that way.
10/30/2007	Meeting with coach Hale: I had a meeting set up with coach Hale of the Bloomsburg football team. I brought my residents along to meet the coach and they were became involved with my discussion with him.	X				X	Students had a chance to meet one of the more popular figures on campus and made the most of the chance to talk to someone with so much knowledge in the field of college athletics.
10/30/2007	The "N" word Mock Trial: Students of the Black Cultural Society put together a mock trial focusing on the pros and cons of the "N" word	X	X	X		X	The mock trial brought to the attention of the students the so called pros and cons of using the "N" word and how is still has an impact on our community sometimes negative and sometimes positive
10/31/2007	A Halloween door decorating contest: with first and second place prizes, was held throughout the girl's first floor wing.					X	Residents had to opportunity to work with their roommate and use their creativity to try to win a prize by decorating their room door appropriately for Halloween.
10/31/2007	Halloween Goodie Bags- Goodie Bags were handed out to residents					X	I made goodie bags for my residents for the holiday and put fun information about Halloween in them, along with inspirational quotes.
10/31/2007	Halloween Party					X	The residents had the opportunity to let go and be a child again. Enhanced community among residents while enjoying the celebration of Halloween. It was a great way for the residents to relax from school work.

10/31/2007	Study Incentives: Gave out candy to residents who were studying	X		X		X	Reinforced study habits while celebrating Halloween
10/12/07 to 10/14/07	Toronto bus Trip- I attended the bus trip to Toronto, Canada.					X	We went to Toronto and bonded with other students in the world's most culturally diverse city.
10/14/07-10/26/07	Penny Wars: A community Service in the North building that was donated to breast cancer research. Pennies were positive and everything else was negative.				X		Students worked as teams to try to win a pizza party for themselves. Total raised from this was $250.
10/19/07-10/28/07	Candy Gram Fundraiser: Fundraiser held to help benefit UNICEF				X	X	This served as both a social opportunity for residents to bond with each other, as well as an opportunity for residents to help UNICEF.
10/22/07-10/27/07	Bracelets for Boobies: Bracelets displaying breast cancer awareness were sold for a dollar with proceeds going towards the Breast Cancer Walk. CAs also handed out a piece of paper that held facts about breast cancer.	X		X	X		Getting staff and residents involved in helping the fight against breast cancer.
10/29/2007-10/31/2007	Schuylkill Haunted House – Converted Schuylkill first floor lounge into a haunted house. Donations were taken for UNICEF at the end of attraction.				X	X	Residents and staff both enjoyed getting into the holiday spirit with fun costumes and good scares.
Every Wednesday	CRU – Campus Crusade for Christ is a time every Wednesday to praise and worship God.	X		X			We learned about Christian beliefs and great ways to praise and worship.
Oct. 22-Nov 11	Penny Wars to benefit Breast Cancer and UNICEF- This competition will go on for 3 weeks and at the end, all the money that is raised will be split and half will go toward Breast Cancer and the other half will go toward UNICEF.				X		The residents and CA's really enjoy this type of competition. It is a way to get everyone involved within the building as well as donate money to good causes.
October	Bathroom Decorations- Strange and interesting facts were posted in bathroom stalls for residents to read and enjoy.	X					Every couple of weeks, I research interesting, fun, and uncommon information for the residents to read and learn about while using the bathrooms.
October	Bible Study: Attended a Bible study with residents	X	X			X	Studied different aspects of the Christian faith
October	Bulletin Board (Facebook Pros and Cons, Food vs. Mood, Test Anxiety, Breast Cancer Awareness, UNICEF info, Ronald McDonald House info, Scariest Places in PA, Name That Creeper, Diversity Awareness, Exercise Tips, We Can and We Will Goals, Recycling, Adoption, STDs, Get Your Drink On...Or Not, "The Ultimate Costume" Pumpkin wall, The A-Wall, Mental Health Awareness Week bulletin board, Men's Sexual Health, Career Bulletin Board, Volunteering, Flu Information, Radio Show Information, and Living Learning Communities, What's your favorite Halloween candy, What's your favorite scary movie, Puff Puff...Or Should You?)	X	X	X	X	X	CAs displayed bulletin boards in their hallways concerning important topics of the month. Residents learned interesting and/or little known facts about all of the topics. These topics affect a majority of all college students at one time or another, so having this information displayed where students can access it easily could potentially have a profound positive impact on them in a variety of ways.
October	Church: CA's invited and took residents to church	X	X		X	X	Residents learned about different religions and faiths

October	Exercise Science Department Research – During this research, residents were able to be participants in the research study “the affects of liquid consumption on a leg to leg bio impedance scale”. Here urine samples were analyzed and my residents BMI’s were successfully taken with a very accurate scale (one that sends electrical signals through the body).	X		X			By way of this research study, those involved were able to learn a little bit about the type of research involved in this department as well as become more aware of their own body compositions.
October	Floor Door Decorating Contest with one winner on each wing. We had fellow CAs judge on creativity, overall theme, use of materials and the ability to grab one’s attention. We deducted points for store bought decorations.					X	This gave the residents a chance to work with their roommate to create something that they could be proud of and display. It also promoted healthy competition between rooms and on the entire floor
October	Game Night (Halo, Fight Night 3, Madden Tournament)					X	Video games are a great way to bond through sharing of common interests, getting your mind off of academics, and blow off some steam!
October	Going to the Rec with Residents					X	Going to the Rec is a great way for residents to spend time together, let off some steam, and engage in healthy behaviors.
October	Impact Night: The impact movement hosts a weekly event called Impact Night. This activity is approximately an hour in length. This program is held for anyone who would like to celebrate Jesus Christ. Activities take place that are designed build individuals within their personal Christian walk.	X	X	X	X	X	Bloomsburg University students that have attended leave motivated and excited. Many individuals invite friends for the next week.
October	Library/Study lounge/study sessions; New theme for study lounge	X		X		X	Studying for exams helps us bond, but also helps us understand the information better. Having a decorated study lounge is a good way for everyone to be relaxed to study and motivates people to help each other out. Great hit with residents!!
October	Lunch/Dinner with Residents					X	Eating meals with residents is a really great way to allow them to get to know each other. We talked about family, classes, and things we can do as a wing. I learned a lot about them, and they help me plan activities.
October	Movie Night (Chuck and Larry, Hairspray, Waist Deep, Chronicles of Narnia, Rosemary's Baby, The Ultimate Gift, Gladiator, Young Frankenstein, Saw 3, The Heartbreak Kid)					X	Movies are a great way to hang out, relax and have some fun. Helps residents get their minds off school and personal issues.
October	Penny wars was held to benefit Breast Cancer and UNICEF. The building raised $310 which will be split evenly between Breast Cancer and UNICEF				X		This promoted healthy competition between all the floors and all the money was donated to good causes. The residents loved the idea.
October	Ronald McDonald – Pop Tabs War – Residents competed by trying to collect the most pop tabs to donate to the Danville Ronald McDonald House. The winning wing received a pizza party. Approximately 24,000 pop tabs were collected.				X		The residents became more aware of ways to help out the surrounding community. They also enjoyed a little friendly competition by trying to be the wing that collected the most.
October	Ronald McDonald Food and Laundry Drive				X		The residents donated the extra food and laundry supplies they had around their room. They were able to feel good about being able to those in need.

October	Share The Harvest/Trick Or Eat food donation programs: Proceeds go to the Bloomsburg Food Cupboard				X		Helps Columbia County residents who are lacking the resources to feed their families.
October	Sports with Residents (Softball, Soccer, Volleyball, Racquetball, Football, Intramural Soccer, Frisbee, Wiffleball)	X				X	Playing sports with residents gets them involved with other residents on the wing/building. It's a great way to bond, participate, create teamwork, learn sportsmanship, and share in a common goal while getting exercise. Some residents learned the fundamentals of certain sports because they had never played them before.
October	Trips (Denny's, Chinese Buffet, Taco Bell, Quaker Steak and Lube, WalMart, Dunkin Donuts, Applebee's, Columbia Mall, Downtown)					X	Residents always enjoy little day-trips together to run errands, explore the town, and have some great food.
October	TV Shows: Smallville, Philadelphia Eagles games, I Love New York 2, Monday Night Football					X	We learned that we all enjoyed watching the same shows and made it a weekly event to watch them.

